Show Description: A struggling L.A. actor, canned from Disneyland, takes a gig working in the Malibu basement mall of a mega-superstar. Alex isn't that big a Barbra queen, but when Her Majesty Herself shows up, the bonding begins. Playwright Tolins got the idea for this delightfully comic solo show about the price of fame and the value of "things" from Barbra Streisand's coffee-table book, "My Passion for Design," which showed off her subterranean emporium.

We encourage color-conscious casting and are striving to be an inclusive theater. The idea behind conscious casting is that the casting decisions are made with intent. Productions actively seek to create a more diverse cast while respecting the playwright's specific character descriptions.
