

2024 WATERWORKS FESTIVAL INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

SESSION ONE PRE-PRODUCTION

Session One will focus on preparation for our 2024 WATERWORKS festival, including the submissions process, festival marketing, sponsor and community partner acquisition, volunteer recruitment, graphic design, and more. Interns will work alongside Live Arts staff with a negotiable schedule of 10 hours per week and possibility of remote work.

DATES: Sep. 2023-Jan. 2024

To apply, please send an email outlining your interest and qualifications to Production & Volunteer Manager Kathleel Mueller at kathleel@livearts.org.

SESSION TWO FESTIVAL PRODUCTION

Session Two will focus on festival production, including management of rehearsal and performance schedules, creation and distribution of promotional materials, photo and video production, and/or technical theater and design opportunities. Interns will work alongside Live Arts staff with a negotiable schedule of 10 hours per week.

DATES: Feb. 2024-June 2, 2024

To apply, please send an email outlining your interest and qualifications to Production & Volunteer Manager Kathleel Mueller at kathleel@livearts.org.

ABOUT LIVE ARTS

We are a 501(c)(3) nonprofit community theater in downtown Charlottesville. We have been pursuing the mission of forging theater & community since 1990.

ABOUT WATERWORKS

Launched in 2023, this festival celebrates new theatrical voices in Charlottesville and beyond. In 2023, we produced 50+ individual performances!
